- Assess and evaluate student progress through assignments, exams, and projects.
- Utilize diverse instructional strategies and technology to enhance learning.
- Collaborate with colleagues, administrators, and parents to support student success.
- Maintain accurate records of student performance and attendance.
- Participate in faculty meetings, professional development, and school events.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Hebrew, Education, Linguistics, or a related field (Master's degree preferred).
- Prior teaching experience at the high school level preferred.
- Strong communication, organizational, and classroom management skills.
- Passion for Hebrew language and culture, with the ability to inspire students.
- Proficiency in integrating technology into the classroom.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary based on experience and qualifications.
- Health, dental, and vision insurance.
- Retirement plan options.
- Professional development opportunities.
- Supportive and collaborative school community.
- Tuition benefits at Yeshiva University schools for employee and immediate family after first year of employment.
